Complaints

At SCC, we always strive to provide a professional and efficient service however we recognise that disputes may arise from time to time. As such, should you have any comments or complaints in relation to any case then in the first instance, you should contact the person handling such case directly.

If you consider that we have not dealt with your comments or complaint appropriately you should then put details of your concerns in writing to our complaints officer Noel Convery (17 College Street, Armagh, BT61 9BT). This will then formally invoke our complaints procedure and we will endeavour to deal with your complaint under the supervision of a director unconnected with the case.

Most disputes can be resolved amicably either through the provision of further information or following negotiations. However, in the event that you have exhausted our complaints procedure and you are not satisfied that your complaint has been resolved or dealt with appropriately, you may take up the matter with Chartered Accountants Ireland and initiate a formal complaint process with them.

SCC is committed to resolving complaints raised through Chartered Accountants Ireland and will fully comply with any review process undertaken in order to reach a conclusion in a prompt and efficient manner. Further information in connection with the Chartered Accountants Ireland complaints procedure can be found at: <https://www.charteredaccountants.ie/Professional-Standards/Complaints-and-discipline>. Please note that there are different complaints procedures set out on that page of the website for our chartered accountants and our Insolvency Practitioner.
